To whom it may concern:

It is with pleasure that I Brandon Peoples and I Nathan Peoples jointly recommend Aaron Jensen to anyone looking to host an estate sale.

A few weeks after the death of our mother in January 2025, we didn't know where to start. After consulting with a few different businesses, we were provided with Mr. Jensen's information. His team made the entire situation seamless and smooth and spoke with us through the process step by step. From pricing and inventorying the items to advertising the sale via social media and taking good care of the floors to preserve cleanliness. The team sold every item over a 2-day period.

For us it was money well spent, especially during our time of grief. We would highly recommend to anyone who has experienced a sudden death in the family or to anyone looking for an honest and reputable business to help with an estate sale.

Sincerely,

Brandon and Nathan Peoples
